

Summer Reading 2017

Presented to the Oregon City Commission on September 20, 2017
by Barratt Miller, Youth Services Librarian

By the Numbers

- 1,600: children and teens age birth to 17 signed up (and received a free book to keep!)
- 619: children and teens finished the program
- Over 8,052: hours spent reading or listening to stories this summer
- 3,279: people who attended an event for children or teens at the library
- 100%: percentage of young readers who maintained or improved their reading skills, as reported by their parents in our parent survey

Our Favorite Things

“My daughter does not enjoy reading a ton. She was excited about the drawing and picking a book. Lots more reading this summer than normal.”

Our Favorite Things

“I appreciate your efforts to make our library an engaging place to be. My five kids (15, 12, 9, 7, 3) LOVE to go to the library!”

Our Favorite Things

“[My favorite thing was] How excited my girls were about it even though I read to them every night anyway. They really enjoyed filling in the butterflies and doing the stickers on the firefighter/police.”

Race of the Chiefs

Day 1

Donation Total: $500

Final Score

Police: 1,213      Fire: 1,060

Chief Jim Band, OCPD
Chief Fred Charlton, CFD #1

Day 82

Thank You

- State of Oregon Ready to Read Grant ($8,232)
- Oregon City Police Department (Chris Wadsworth and Chief Band)
- Clackamas Fire District #1 (Steve Hoffeditz and Chief Charlton)
- Oregon City Public Works Department
- Oregon City Parks Department
- Willamette Falls Media Center
- Kathryn Kohl and Libraries in Clackamas County (LINCC) staff
- Jessica Varga
- Vicki Calcagno of Menchie's Hilltop and the rest of our regional sponsors
- Friends of the Library & Library Foundation
- Library staff