

Original June 29, 2015

City of Oregon City

BUILDING DIVISION POLICY

Application for Permits

All Commercial and Residential Construction projects that have been submitted for review shall be routed to Planning, Building and Engineering for review.

In the Building Division the staff member that starts the review process will complete the review process which includes entering the applicable information into the city computer permitting software program and route to the next Division for review.