Make a difference in your community.

Oregon City Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission has openings for new members. PRAC members help shape the future of Oregon City's parks, recreational programming and policies. PRAC members are vital to the health of the City and its Parks and Recreation system. PRAC members meet about 9 times a year during their 3 year commitment.

Oregon City Arts Commission works to enhance public awareness and appreciation of the arts, culture and heritage of Oregon City. OCAC is looking for people who are interested in serving the community and supporting the arts.

Applications are available at the front desk at City Hall or on our web page.

We are looking for sponsors for the 2003 Concerts in the Park Series. If you are interested in becoming involved in this wonderful, well established community event, call Jim Row at 503 496-1565

Reduced Hours at the Library

The Library hours have changed. We are now open 5 days per week. Tuesday through Thursday 10-8, Friday and Saturday 10-5

CULTURAL PROGRAMMING

We offer a wide range of cultural programming, from music to lecture, demonstrations to dance. You won't want to miss a single one. Our programs are made possible in part by generous donations from the Friends of the Library.

CHICA MARIMBA

Thursday, April 3 6:30-7:30 p.m.

This ten-member all female marimba troupe is comprised of educators from the local area who love bringing the music of Zimbabwe to their audiences. Their marimba style is based on the well-known African musician, Dumisani (Dumi) Maraire who is credited with introducing Shona marimba music, nyunga nyunga mbira, to the Pacific Northwest.

FOR ALL LOVERS OF COMIC BOOKS AND GRAPHIC NOVELS

Thursday, April 10 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Michael Martins and Shawna Ervin-Gore of Dark Horse Comics will share their vast knowledge of comic books, graphic novels and manga in this program for National Library Week. They will talk about the history of Dark Horse Comics, the development of the graphic novel and manga formats, as well as popular authors and illustrators.

"THE LAST ROSE: A CIVIL WAR REMEMBRANCE"

William and Clara Coleman, Oregon Council for the Humanities
Thursday, April 24 6:30-7:30 p.m.

A melodramatic stage production based on the courtship of Private George Boatright and Miss Martha "Mattie" Burrows. Private Boatright's letters to Mattie were found in 1985 when her estate was put up for auction. This drama paints a portrait of love and devotion crushed by the harsh realities of the Civil War.

VORTEX I, WHEN OREGON ROCKED

Matt Love, Oregon Council for the Humanities
Thursday, May 1 6:30-7:30 p.m.

In August 1970, an estimated 50,000 people attended Vortex I at McIver State Park. Vortex I was a fascinating episode of protest against the war in Viet Nam, a daring act of political courage, a great party, and a ready-made legend in the modern mythology of the Pacific Northwest. There was never a Vortex II.

SWEET THUNDER JAZZ TRIO

Thursday, May 22 6:30-7:30 p.m.

This popular female trio is well known for the melodic compositions of their piano player, Kiera O'Hara. They also play classics from jazz greats such as Duke Ellington, Miles Davis and Thelonius Monk. Mary Steele is on bass and Wendy McGinnis is on drums.

CASCADIA FOLK QUARTET

Thursday, June 12 6:30-7:30 p.m.

A unique fusion of traditional and modern acoustic music featuring Mick Doherty and Lawrence Huntley on hammer dulcimer, Kevin Shay Johnson playing big rhythm guitar and Chip Cohen on fiddle. These talented musicians play Celtic jigs and reels, old-time hoedowns, rags, waltzes and polkas. Strong voices and three-part harmonies deliver folk songs from around the world.

FOOLS IN PARADISE

Thursday, June 26 6:30-7:30 p.m.

An eclectic five-person group performing a variety of music on African instruments. Their traditional Zimbabwean mbira (thumb-playing) songs will transport you to another time and place. Their rousing marimba music from South Africa, Zimbabwe and Guinea creates an energetic danceable sound. Congas, djembe, electric bass kalimba, shakers and vocal harmonies round out the sound and create joyful upbeat music.

COMPUTER CLASSES: First Step for Beginners: If you learn better at a slower-pace, have never touched a computer (or have a "thing" about machines), this version of Computer Basics may be for you. Instruction is focused on learning to communicate with the computer, understanding the signs and symbols that a computer uses to communicate to you. In each two- hour session students will get hands on practice, concentrating on the mouse, menus, tool bars and getting around on the computer.

Classes once a week for 4 weeks, and are limited to 8 students.

Computer Basics: This course opens with a survey of computer terminology and components. You'll learn to set up master folders in Windows 95, 98, 2000 and XP. This makes it easy to find the things you save in your computer.

Explore/use the Worldwide Web! You will be able to set up your own E-mail account and send a friend your class picture over the Internet. Classes run 2 hours once a week for 4 weeks, and are limited to 8 students.

Word Processing: Build on basics to fine-tune your word processing skills. This 1 ½ hour class intensely focuses on increasing your typing skills. You'll learn more about keyboard function and short cuts and focus on Microsoft Word 2000 as well as learn about the differences in word processors. You'll customize your tool bar, work with formats, and set up defaults to maximize your efficiency, as well as learn how to set up tables. Classes run once a week for 4 weeks and are limited to 8 students.

Beyond the Basics: Learn how to install and uninstall software and set up short cuts on your desktop to back up your data. Do general maintenance to keep your PC tuned up and running fast, upload and download files off the internet. Set up a photo album on the internet. Intro to Web page design and HTML. Classes run once a week for 4 weeks and are limited to 8 students.

Picture This: Would you like to preserve your family history by creating a computer CD slide show that you can narrate? Information on family history could be lost forever if you cannot pass it along to your children. Learn to take your family photos, scan them into your computer, touch them up, record your voice into the computer and create a narrated CD slide show that will preserve your memories forever. Students should have prior knowledge of making folders on their computer (taught in the Basic computer class), Classes run once a week for 4 weeks, and are limited to 8 students.

GROUP PIANO LESSONS - (8 Weeks) every Tuesday from 1:30-2:30 PM. This is a group class designed to provide an introduction to basic piano technique.
