

FIELD TRIPS & SCHOOL VISITS

Preschool Family Nights

Help connect your students' families with the library! We can visit a family night at your school to share information about the library with parents & caregivers and give children free books to keep.

E-mail requests to bmiller@orcity.org at least 30 days in advance

1st Grade Field Trips

All 1st grade classrooms in the Oregon City are invited to visit our library! Field trips are offered on Tuesdays afternoons and include a storytime, tour, and chance to explore the Children's Room.

E-mail requests to bmiller@orcity.org at least 30 days in advance

Summer Reading Assemblies

Keep your elementary students reading over the summer! Our librarians can do a 5-minute Summer Reading presentation at an assembly between Memorial Day and the last day of school.

E-mail requests to bmiller@orcity.org at least 30 days in advance

Middle & High School Visits

Our teen librarian will pay a monthly visit to your school library during lunch or after school. In addition to a different teen-friendly activity each month, we'll also have books to give away to students.

E-mail requests to stusing@orcity.org at least 30 days in advance

Would you like to set up a different kind of event? Contact our Youth Services Librarian via e-mail at bmiller@orcity.org at least 6 weeks in advance to see if we're able to host or visit your group.
