Description of Physical and Landscape Features:
This one story transitional-style house has a rectangular plan. The gable roof is covered in composition shingles, has pointed bargeboard and is supported by decorative brackets. The house is covered in drop siding grounded by a water table with cap. Windows are primarily 1/1 wood double-hung. The gable roof front entry porch is supported by narrow columns and has an open railing. A period garage sits to the east of the house.
