Description of Physical and Landscape Features:
This 1-1/2 story colonial residence has a rectangular plan with a rear single story addition and a south side dormer. It sits on a concrete block foundation and is clad in channel drop siding with corner boards. The front gabled roof has boxed eaves, eave returns and is covered with composition shingling. The windows are primarily 1/1 wooden double-hung with lamb's tongues. There is a recessed corner front porch with a decorative door surround. The porch materials appear to be original. There is a wooden stair with a metal pipe railing and also a chimney in the rear. There is a garage inserted at the basement level with two side-hinged doors that are half glazed (6 panes each).
