Description of Physical and Landscape Features:
This simple 1-1/2 story vernacular house has a side-facing gable roof covered in composition shingles. The single story extension to the south has a hip roof. The plan shape is rectangular and the house sits on a concrete block foundation. It is clad in asbestos shingles. The house features a small porch with a gable roof and two square columns. The windows are 2/2 wood with mock shutters. The narrow garage on the south side of the house also sits on a concrete block foundation.
